Dear Friends

"The road goes ever on and on down from the door where it began. And far ahead the road has gone, and I must follow if I can"

J. R. Tolkien in his epic works about Middle Earth placed these words in the mouths of his two hero Hobbits, Bilbo and Frodo Baggins. I have always thought that they express something of Tolkien's understanding of his deep Christian faith as his tale about the adventures of the Hobbits are enclosed within a journeying motif. On the one hand the physical journey of the characters as they play their individual parts, and on the other, the greater journey of the tale itself which stretches from the beginning of time and on into the unknowable future. Journeys and pilgrimages have long been ways in which Christians describe their understanding of their discipleship in remembrance of Jesus' words to the fishermen – "Follow me!"

The faith pilgrimage can take many forms. Sometimes it can mean an inward spiritual pilgrimage; then again it can be a way of describing our living out of our faith throughout the ordinary daily round; and sometimes it can mean an actual physical journey for a limited time or to a new calling elsewhere. However we interpret it is a significant part of the Christian understanding that there is a good deal more to life and being a Christian than appears on the surface. Listening and obeying the words of Jesus "Follow me!" is a truly life, and heart, changing experience.

Over the past three years we have all been on the journey of our own individual pilgrimages and our corporate pilgrimage together as a United Benefice. As with all journeys there have been times when we have moved along smoothly and there have been times when the journey has been unsettling and challenging. That journey continues. As the United Benefice enters into a new stage of the journey it is important that the challenges of being God's church in this place and being faithful witnesses of the Gospel be faced and necessary changes made in order that Jesus command to "make disciples of all nations..." be fulfilled.

The silver lining of being ill over these last weeks has meant I have had the opportunity to ponder on my own pilgrimage and have come to realise that for me that means an actual as well as spiritual journey. That has not been an easy decision to make and will mean some drastic changes as we believe that we as a Religious Community are being called to lay down paid employment and live by faith in order to develop a new ministry and open a small house of prayer where people can come for times of quiet space, prayer, or short retreats. We would greatly value your prayers for this project which will be based in the village of Tunstall situated just north of Lancaster and about 4 miles from Kirby Lonsdale. We would be more than delighted to welcome you to St. Joseph's House at any time.

As the United Benefice steps out into the new phase in your pilgrimage together there will be changes, small and large, exciting and unsettling, welcome and unwelcome. And it will be important that all these changes are grounded in prayer and openness to God's prompting. After all it is God's church and God's mission and God's plan for the future. When I came to serve as your Vicar I strongly believed that this was God's calling – and I have never doubted that belief. My time here has been shorter than I first envisioned but I am glad that I followed the call and am truly grateful for all the love and friendship I have experienced here and I shall continue to hold you in my thoughts and prayers.

"Thus says the Lord, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel; I am the Lord your God, who teaches you for your own good, who leads you in the way you should go." [Isaiah 48, 17].

*With every blessing for the future pilgrimage
Sister Sue.*

A GREAT BIG THANK YOU

To everyone who has sent get well cards and letters over the last few weeks. They have really cheered me!

WITH MANY PRAYERS AND BLESSINGS

Sister Sue

The Parish Church of St Mary, Mellor Fabric Report 2015

We reported last year on two major issues: redecoration of the chancel and water ingress in the vestry. Unfortunately, these are still to be resolved:

Firstly, there is disagreement between the paint suppliers and the architects as to the appropriate type of paint to be used in the chancel. Until we receive approval, we are unable to proceed. The possibility of painting all of the interior of the church and renewal of the lighting cannot be considered until the painting of the chancel is agreed.

Secondly, although the leaks apparent on the vestry ceiling may have been rectified, when it rains hard there has been very significant water ingress at the base of the wall beneath the window. Further investigation is needed; therefore, redecoration of the vestry is also on hold.

It has been noted previously that when there are strong winds and heavy rain, there are leaks above the staircase leading to the balcony. We have experienced a lot of heavy rain this winter. There has been a great deal of condensation in various areas of the church. Leaks have been noted above the north gallery and south aisle and even through the arch above the main door, soaking the floor at the entrance.

Following the annual churchyard inspection in October, two gravestones/memorials which were very unstable were laid down. Four still have their warning notices and tapes in place and a number of others require remedial work by the families. The likelihood is that we will have to come to terms with an increasing number of laid flat gravestones. The full inspection report can be found on the church website.

An inspection of the trees in the churchyard was undertaken in the autumn of 2014 by Bowland Tree Consultancy Ltd. Following their report, a specialist firm undertook the issues identified as “urgent”, at a cost of £3,000.

Application was made to the Diocesan Advisory Committee for the creation of a new cremated remains area in the north eastern corner of the graveyard. The DAC requires a Statement of Need and a scale plan. The PCC hopes the Archdeacon may be able to advise on how best to proceed.

It has been agreed that whenever there are 5 Sundays in a calendar month the three churches in the benefice will have a joint service in the morning starting at 10.45am.

This will take effect from Sunday 31 July 2016.

Please make a note in your diaries that the first three United Benefice Services will be:-

Sunday 29 January 2017	10.45am St Leonard's Balderstone

Parochial Church Council Review of the Year 2015

The PCC met 6 times during the year. In addition, there were the Vestry Meeting and the Annual Parochial Church Meeting. We faced these with some trepidation, as new officers were needed. We were grateful, therefore, that David Holroyd and Barbara Lucas were elected as the new churchwardens and Lorna Shaw as Treasurer. David Adams was appointed later as co-Treasurer. We thank them for all their hard work. Jean Freeman, Derek Howarth, Linda Livesey, Lorna Shaw, Graham Tipper and Dorothy Walsh were welcomed as new members, giving us a particularly strong PCC membership. We also note the support of Graham Calvert and Hilda Hilton. The PCC members have continued to operate an assistant wardens rota at services, to help the churchwardens and the sidespersons.

During the year there were three major fundraising efforts: the Village Quiz, the Barbecue and the Autumn Fayre. In terms both of support and income generated, these events go from strength to strength. The PCC gives heartfelt thanks to everyone involved in these events, whether as part of the organising committees, the helpers or the people who supported them.

The various organisations within the Church have continued to flourish: the Mothers' Union, the Sunday School, Vision (formerly Youth Fellowship) and Little Angels.

We have greatly appreciated Mike Wilcock's contribution to our worship as organist and choirmaster and his and Liz's talents at the special services they have organised. Our thanks go to Margaret Baldwin and Frank Ashton who also played at services. We have also enjoyed the monthly All Age Worship services and are grateful to Debbie Chadwick and Karen Walsh for preparing and leading them.

The church school continues to provide a wonderful start to our children's lives thanks to Mrs Taylor and her staff and we look forward to and enjoy their participation, together with that of our own Sunday School children, in our services. We wish Mrs Taylor all the best on her retirement.

The church continues to look attractive and welcoming thanks to our cleaners and our flower ladies, led by Joan Moss, while the churchyard is maintained throughout the summer by the willing team of mowers. The church clock and chimes also continue to play an important part in the life of the village thanks to the care and attention they are given by Alan Bibby.

The parish magazine flourishes under the editorship of Rita Gorman and Ron Hak. Richard Jones and Chris Davis ensure the website and notices are up to date and informative. The Fair Trade stall continues to be held on the first Sunday of most months. The work of the card ladies is ever present, supporting a variety of charities. We thank our Rose Queen, Caitlin Slater, for her work for charity. We also thank the ladies who make the coffee for us, not only after All Age Worship and parish communion on the first Sunday of the month but also at the weekly coffee mornings.

Thanks are again due to all those who help with our services: visiting clergy, Nigel, choir, sidespersons and servers. Reverend Roland Nicholson celebrated 40 years in the priesthood and our vicar, Reverend Sue Williams, was appointed as Canon of Whalley. To everyone who has supported the church in any way during the year, and there are far too many of you to name individually, we hope you will accept this note of thanks and appreciation. Without you all, the Parish Church of St Mary, Mellor, would not be the centre of our worship and witness.

Finally, despite the many aspects of church life for which to be grateful, it is with great sadness and regret that we face the resignation of Sister Sue on 1st May. In her own words, she has attempted to be a "full time vicar" in the three churches of the United Benefice and "this is no longer possible". A combined PCCs meeting with the Bishop of Burnley and meetings with all the churchwardens have not resolved this. We thank her for all she has tried to do for us and trust that she will be restored to full health. We clearly face a difficult time in the inter regnum.

FAIRTRADE

Thank you to those who supported the stall in April – takings were £75; and especially to David and Helen who collected and returned the boxes of goods to Fairground and Eileen who helped on the stall.

The next sale will be held before and following Parish Communion on Sunday, 1st May.

Mothers' Union

We enjoyed a lively meeting in April when we welcomed Joan and Julie from the Blackburn branch of The Samaritans. Their talk was informative, very interesting and they answered the many questions with good humour.

The Whalley Deanery Festival will be held at the Church of St. Peter & St Paul, Bolton by Bowland at 7.30pm on Wednesday, 4th May. We shall be taking our Mothers' Union banner and all members from our branch will be very welcome.

We look forward to hearing all about " Under the Makuta Roof" from Mrs Norah Clay who will speak to us at the next meeting on Tuesday, 10th May.

A Thank You From Roland

I have received an acknowledgement for the donation sent to 'Train a Priest Fund'.

This was from the collection taken at the service to celebrate my 40th Anniversary of Ordination to the Priesthood held in St Mary's Church last September. With gift aid the donation amounted to £1500.00.

I wish to thank all who contributed to this charity and helped to raise this magnificent amount of money.

Your kind generosity is very much appreciated.

SCARECROW FESTIVAL

Following the success of last year's Scarecrow Festival it has been decided to repeat the event to take place this summer in July.

It would be great if we had even more scarecrows around the village - so time to put on your thinking caps and come up with some bright ideas.

More details next month.

Rose Queen/Walking Day+ Queens 90th Birthday

We hope you can all come along on 11th June for this wonderful day.

Our Rose Queen for 2016 will be the young lady who has a smile for everyone, Lucy Taylor. Attending her will be Sam Taylor, Ruby Holroyd King and Grace Hilton. As it is also a weekend when the country will be celebrating the 90th birthday of our Queen Elizabeth, the lunch will be moved to the village hall. Here we will have a street party, games on the field, BBQ and a fete with fun for all. Evening festivities as usual with the disco. This is the main occasion of the year where everyone comes together as a church family and is truly a day full of joy and friendship, for all in our parish, so please encourage your neighbours and friends to join the fun. Each year we hear that churches who previously had a Rose Queen or similar have stopped this event due to lack of support or lack of children in church. Please encourage your friends along and keep our Mellor tradition alive.

OUR MERCIFUL SONGS OF PRAISE

St. Mary's Osbaldeston R.C. Church on Longsight Road is holding an evening of song, all your favourite hymns, on Thursday, 19th May 2016 at 7.00pm.

We are, in our small way, trying to help the homeless through the Free Project which is an organisation of volunteers who help people who find themselves in a difficult situation. So, if you could bring a donation in the form of, for example, toiletries, toothpaste, toothbrushes, deodorant toilet rolls, soap, even underwear or socks this would be very much appreciated.

Pope Francis has asked us to make 2016 a Year of Mercy – in a very small way we can make a difference . . . and on our own doorstep, too.

So please come along and enjoy a good sing!
